Excerpts of the Articles of the Euro Banking Association as of 1 January 2019

ARTICLE 2 - DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these Articles:

“bank” shall mean:

- a) any “credit institution” within the meaning of Article 4.1, point (1) of Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 26 June 2013 on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms and amending Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 (“CRR”); or
- b) central banks from the Eurosystem, a Member State of the European Union or of the European Economic Area and central banks from an Accession Country;
- c) any legal entity that is entitled to grant credits for its own account, under an international agreement.

Article 6 – Membership

6.1 The Association shall consist of members which shall be:

- a) banks which have their registered office in a Member State of the European Union and banks which have their registered office in a Member State of the European Economic Area other than a Member State of the European Union;
- b) banks, duly licensed and supervised as a credit institution under the laws of the jurisdiction in which their registered office is located, which have their registered office in one of the candidate countries accepted by the European Council to participate in the accession negotiations to become members of the European Union (each an “Accession Country”); and
- c) banks whose registered office is not located in one of the Member States of the European Union or of the European Economic Area nor in an Accession Country, and which may (only) join the Association through a branch office located in a Member State of the European Union.

6.4 Each member shall appoint a regular permanent representative and an alternate permanent representative.

The regular and alternate permanent representative of each member shall be an employee or officer of such member or of an affiliated entity forming part of the same group. For the purposes of the provisions of this Article 6.4, an affiliated entity forming part of the same group as a member shall mean a legal entity which is included in the same consolidated accounts as such member.

Any such appointment may be terminated at any time.

The appointment of any such representative and the termination of the same shall be notified to the Chairman of the Association.
